Introduction

Hello.

I'm Heeyoung Noh (Céz) — an illustrator and motion designer based between Seoul and Glasgow.

I create lyrical and feminine illustrations that explore emotion, narrative, and atmosphere.

I have worked on a range of commercial and cultural projects with international companies such as Netflix, LG Household & Health Care, KT, and T'way Air.

My practice blends artistic sensitivity with visual storytelling, aiming to connect audiences through color, rhythm, and mood.

Illustration project 1. Netflix collaboration, Extraordinary Attorney Woo (Mural illustration)

Created promotional and in-drama illustrations for Extraordinary Attorney Woo, a hit Netflix series.

Designed four narrative illustrations featured at the ending scenes of episodes 9–12, symbolizing the emotional journeys of the main characters.

Also created a large-scale mural in Seoul inspired by key motifs from the show, which became a fan photo spot.

Illustration project 1. Extraordinary Attorney Woo (Drama illustration)

The main project of the collaboration was producing four illustrations which will be added to the last scene of episode 9, 10, 11 and 12.

This illustration was added at 9th episode of the drama, Extraordinary Attorney Woo.

The illustration was designed based on the inspiration of the episode of the self-proclaimed leader of the children's liberation movement who was arrested for kidnapping; Young-woo tries to win Jun-ho's affection.

The illustration added on episode 11

The illustration added on episode 12

Illustration project 2. KT x Lotte World Pop up

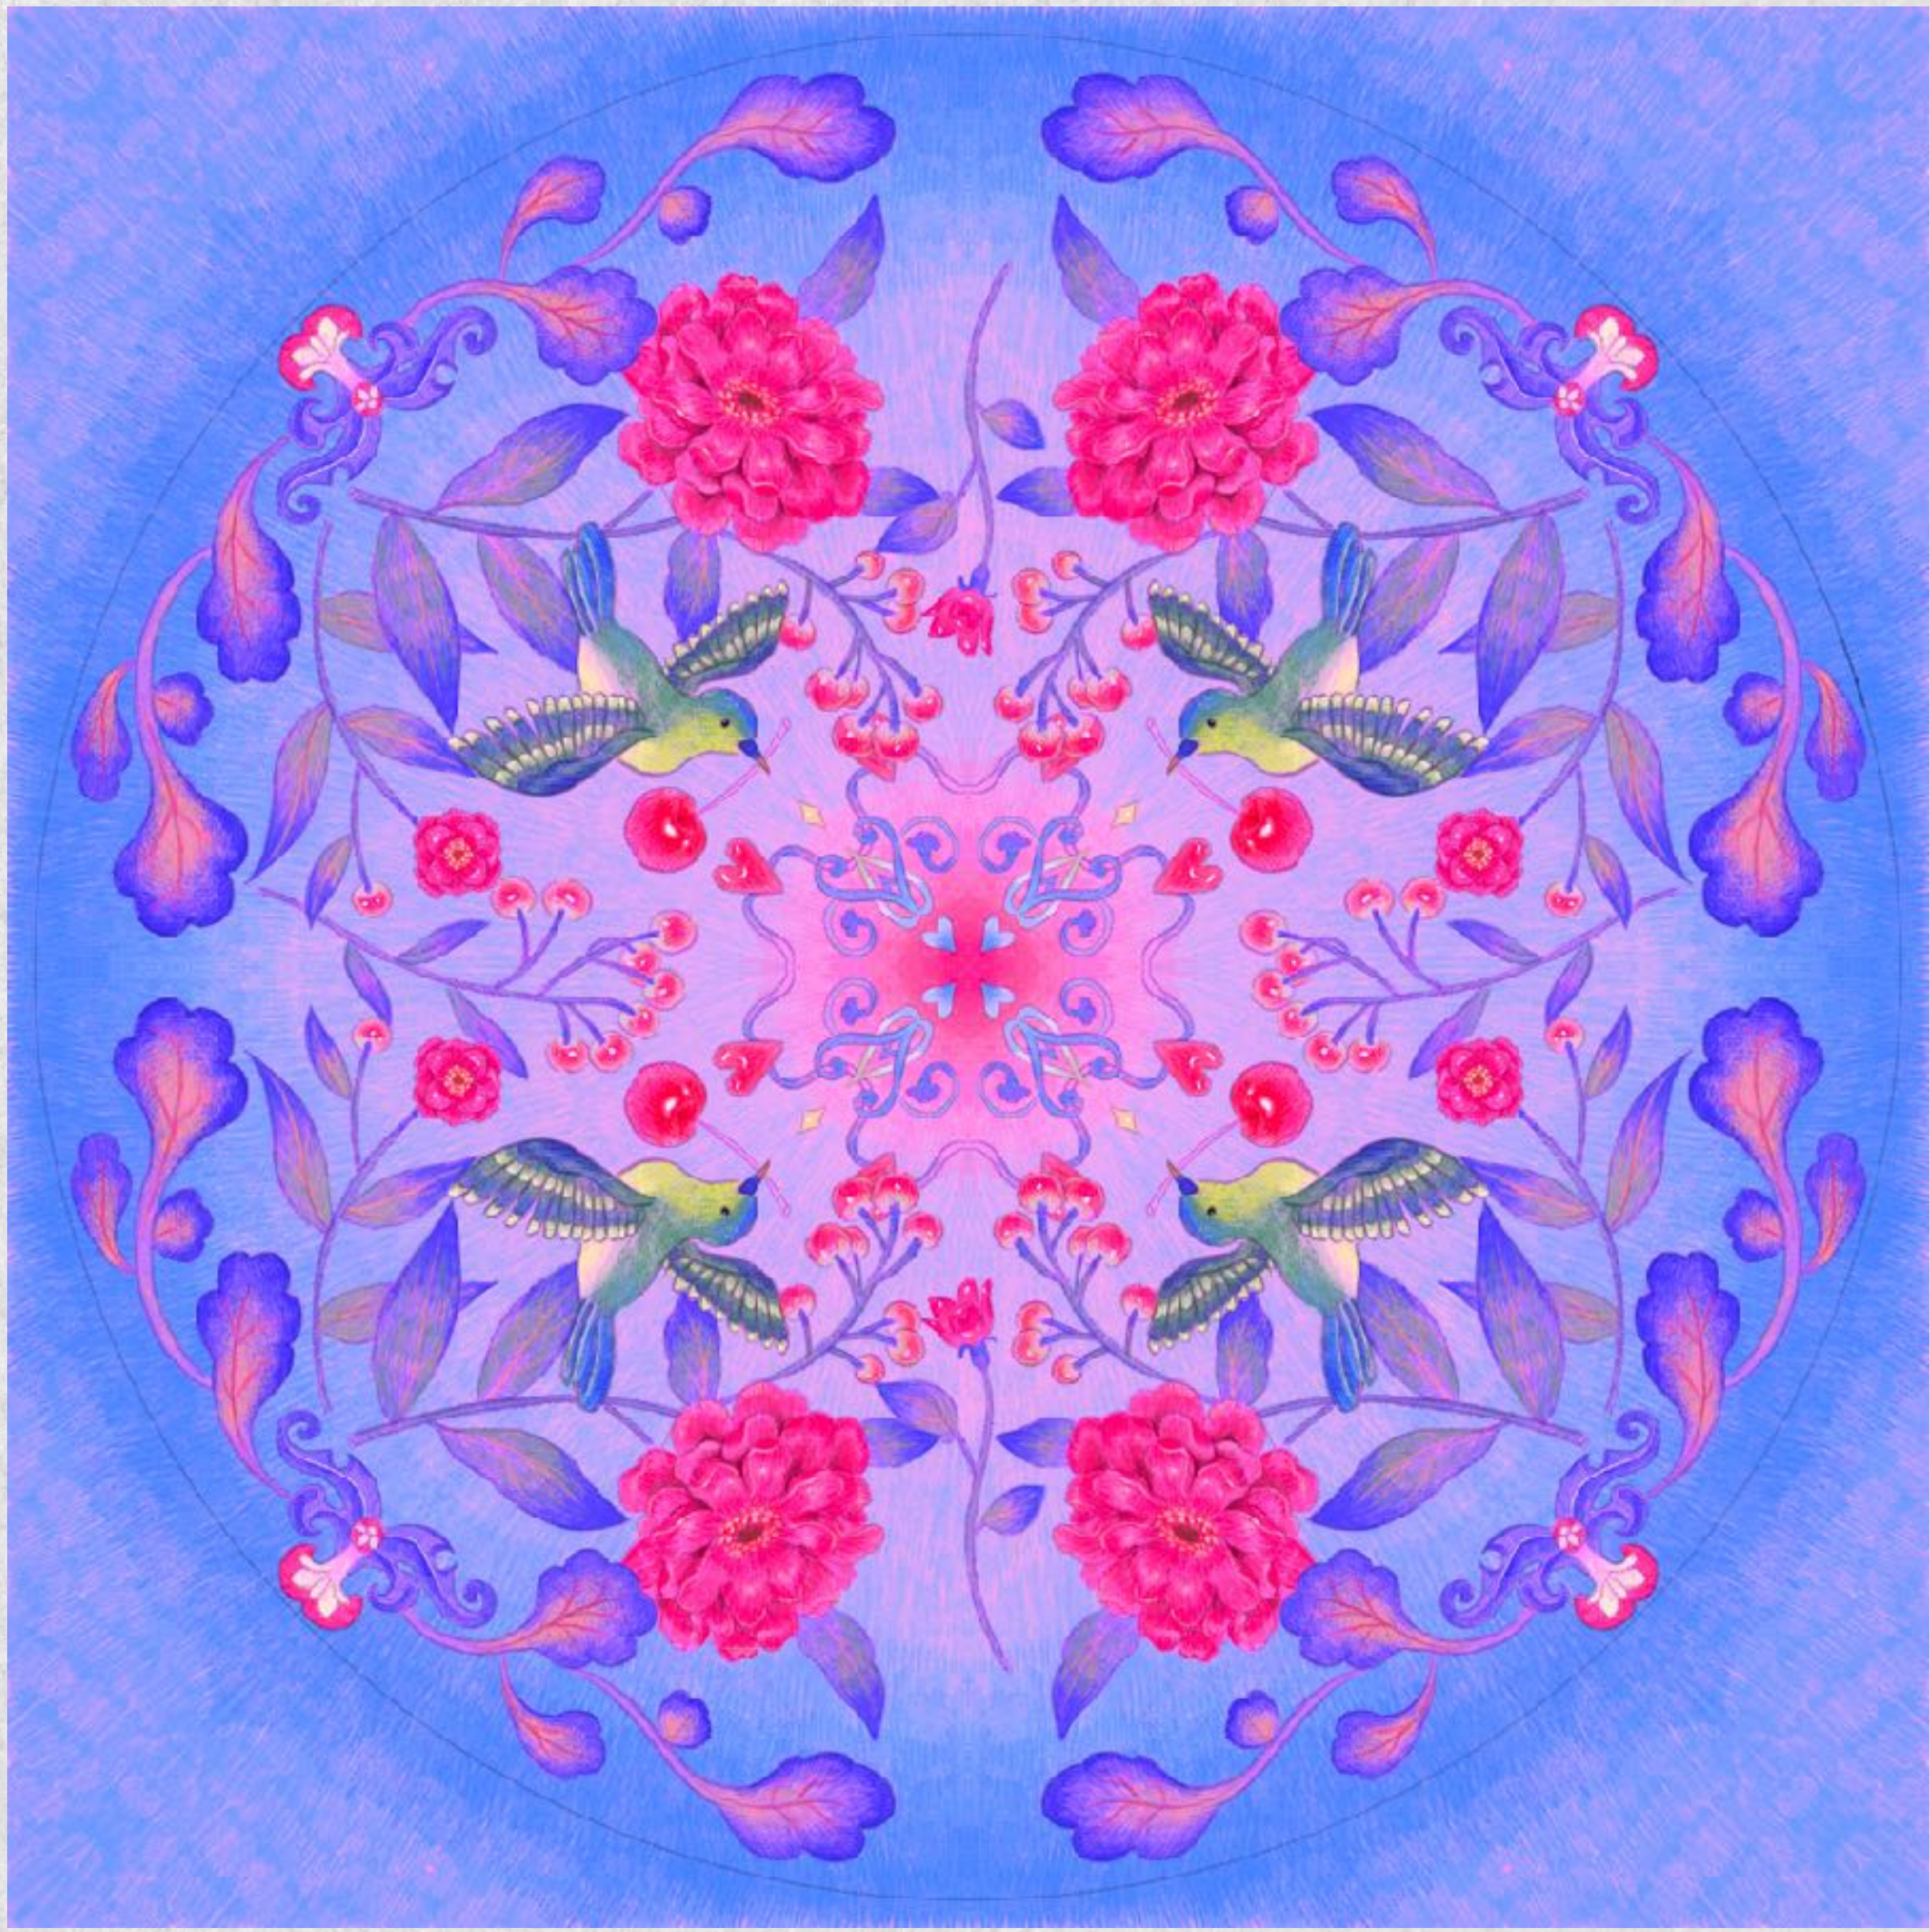

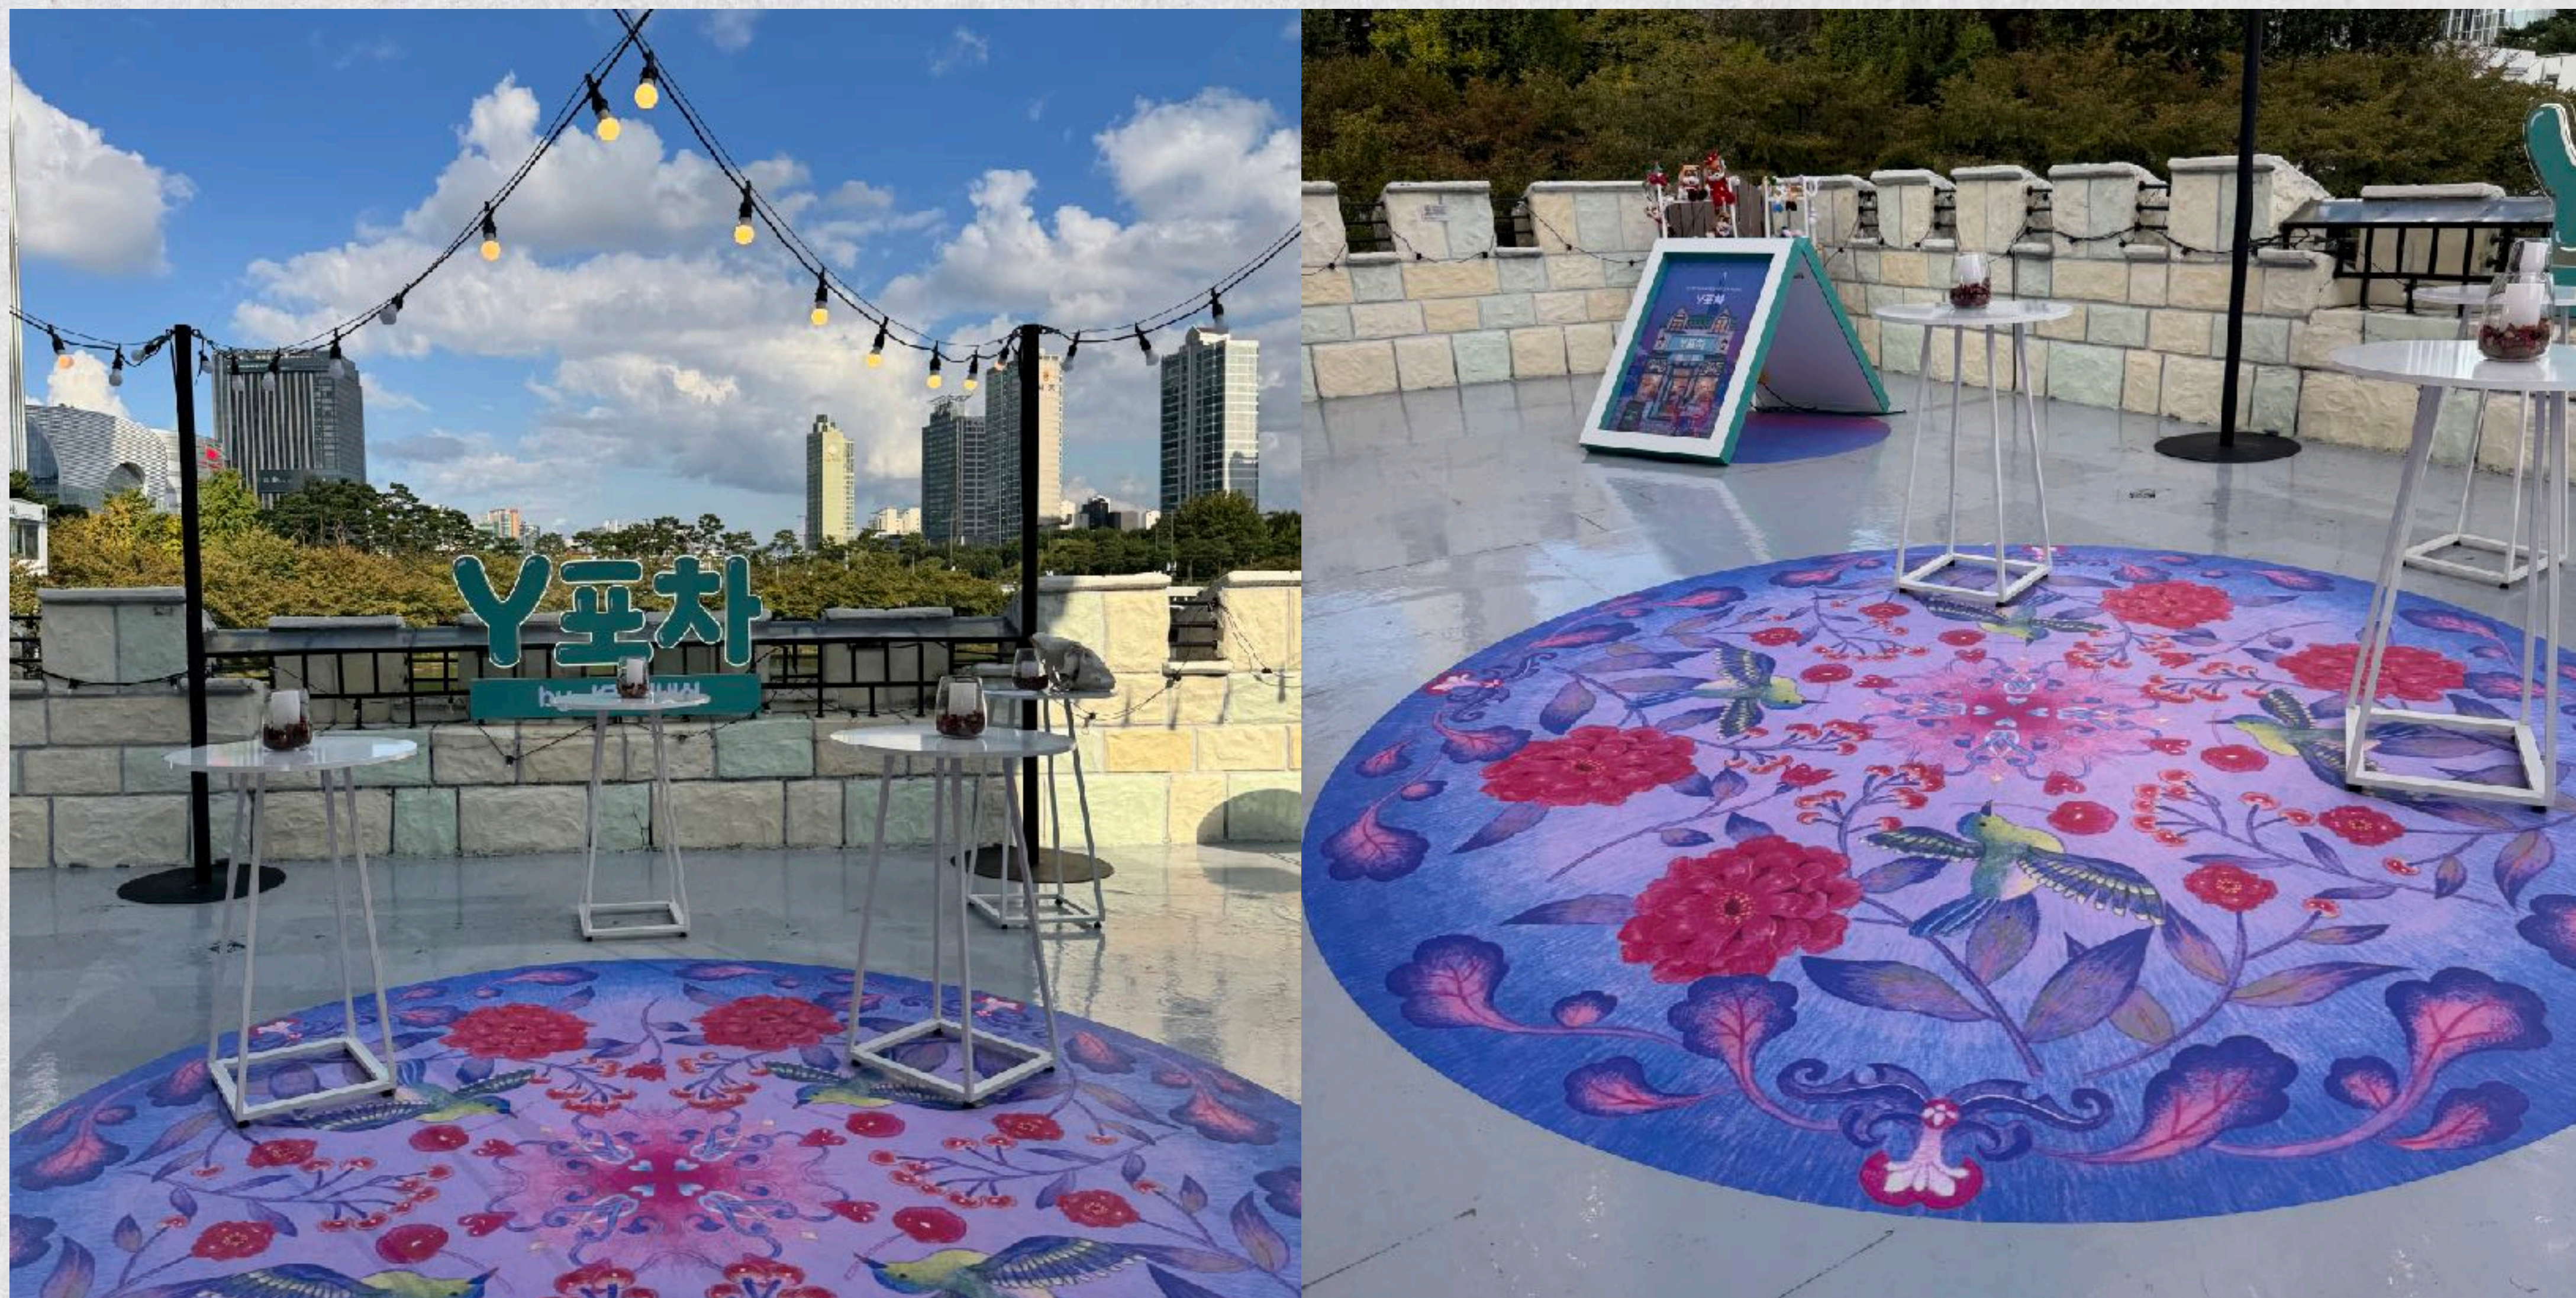

Illustration design for KT’s promotional pop-up event at Lotte World, targeting audiences in their mid-20s.

The visuals were inspired by Mediterranean aesthetics — blending warm tones, romantic atmospheres, and European coastal motifs to create a dreamy and inviting experience.

Illustration project 2. Pixpills 2022 Annual Artbook

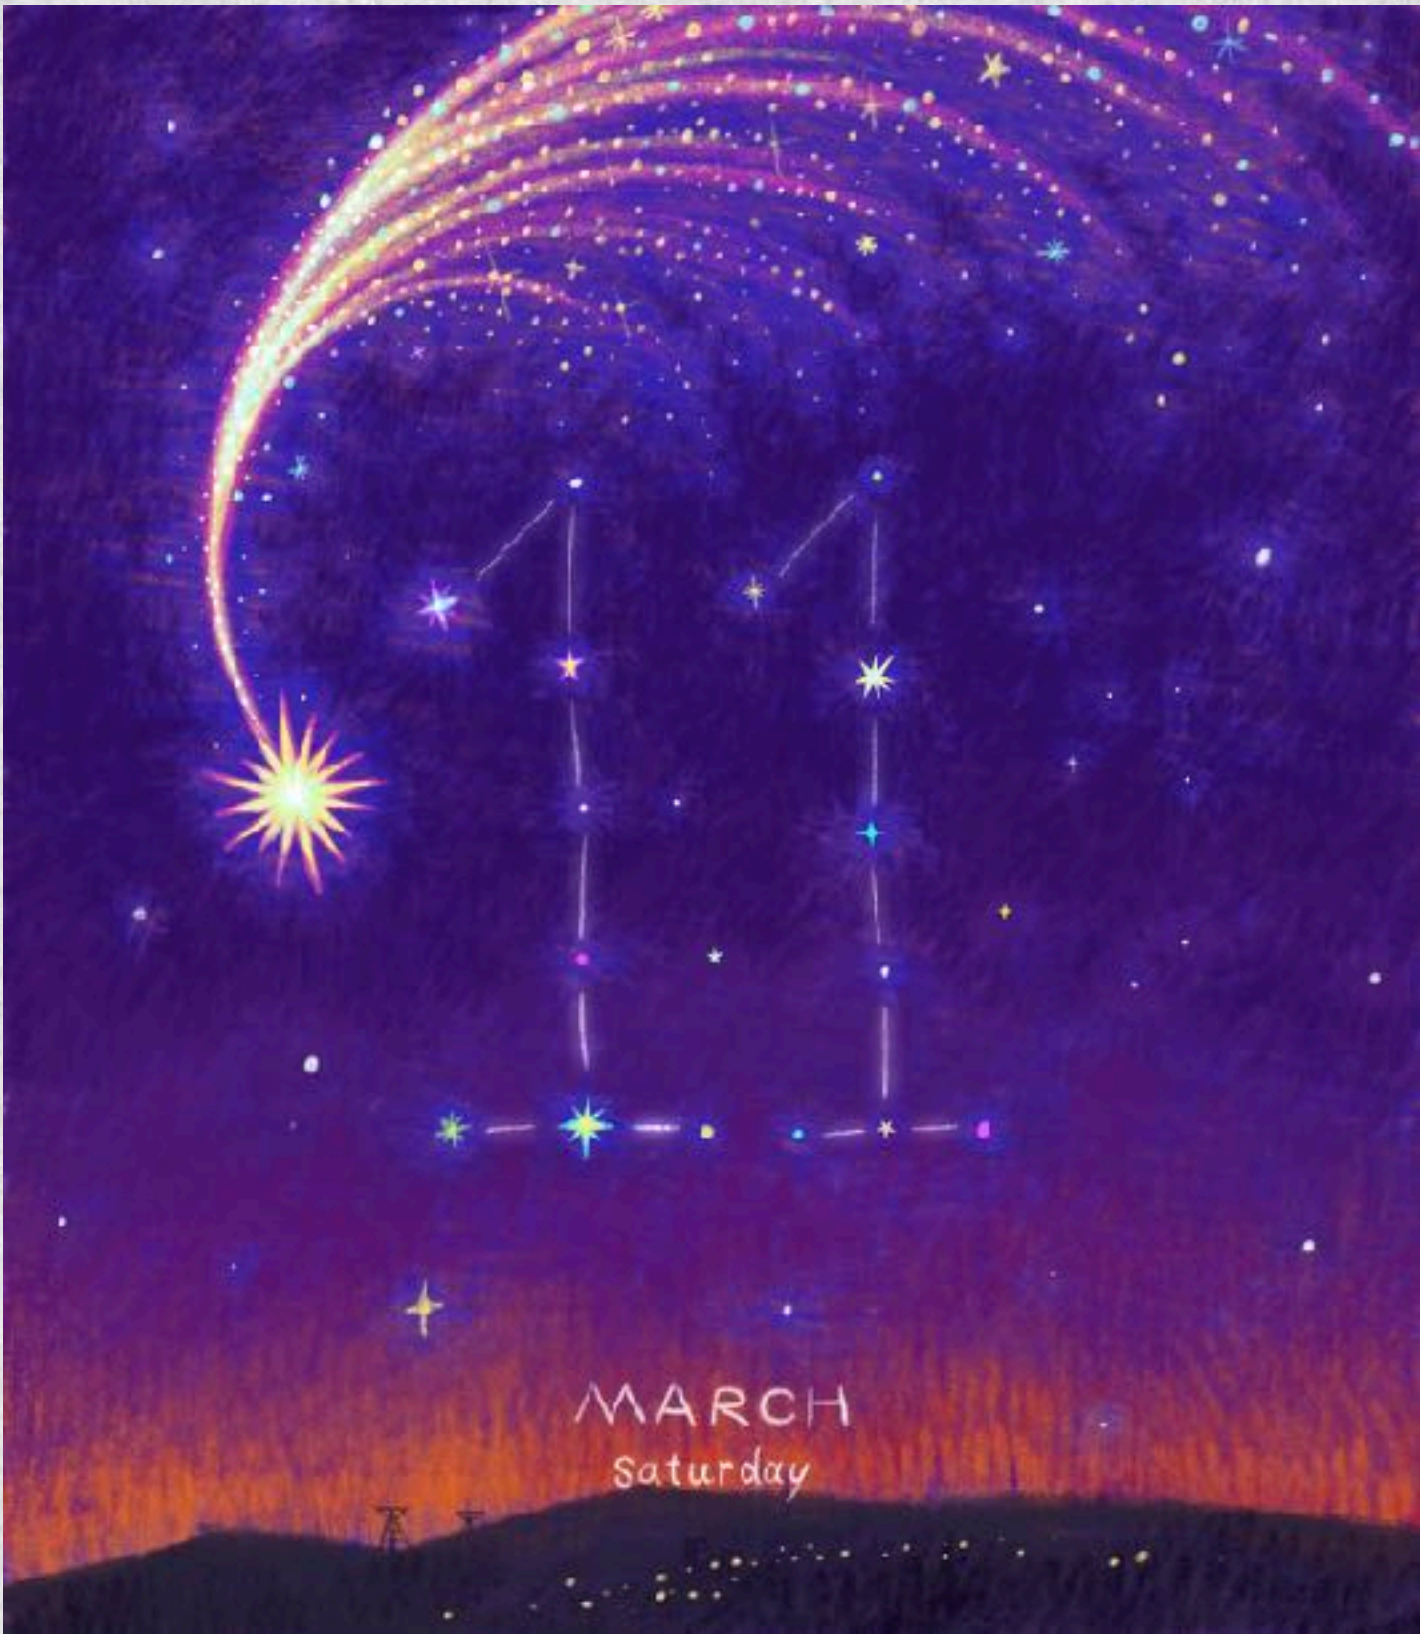

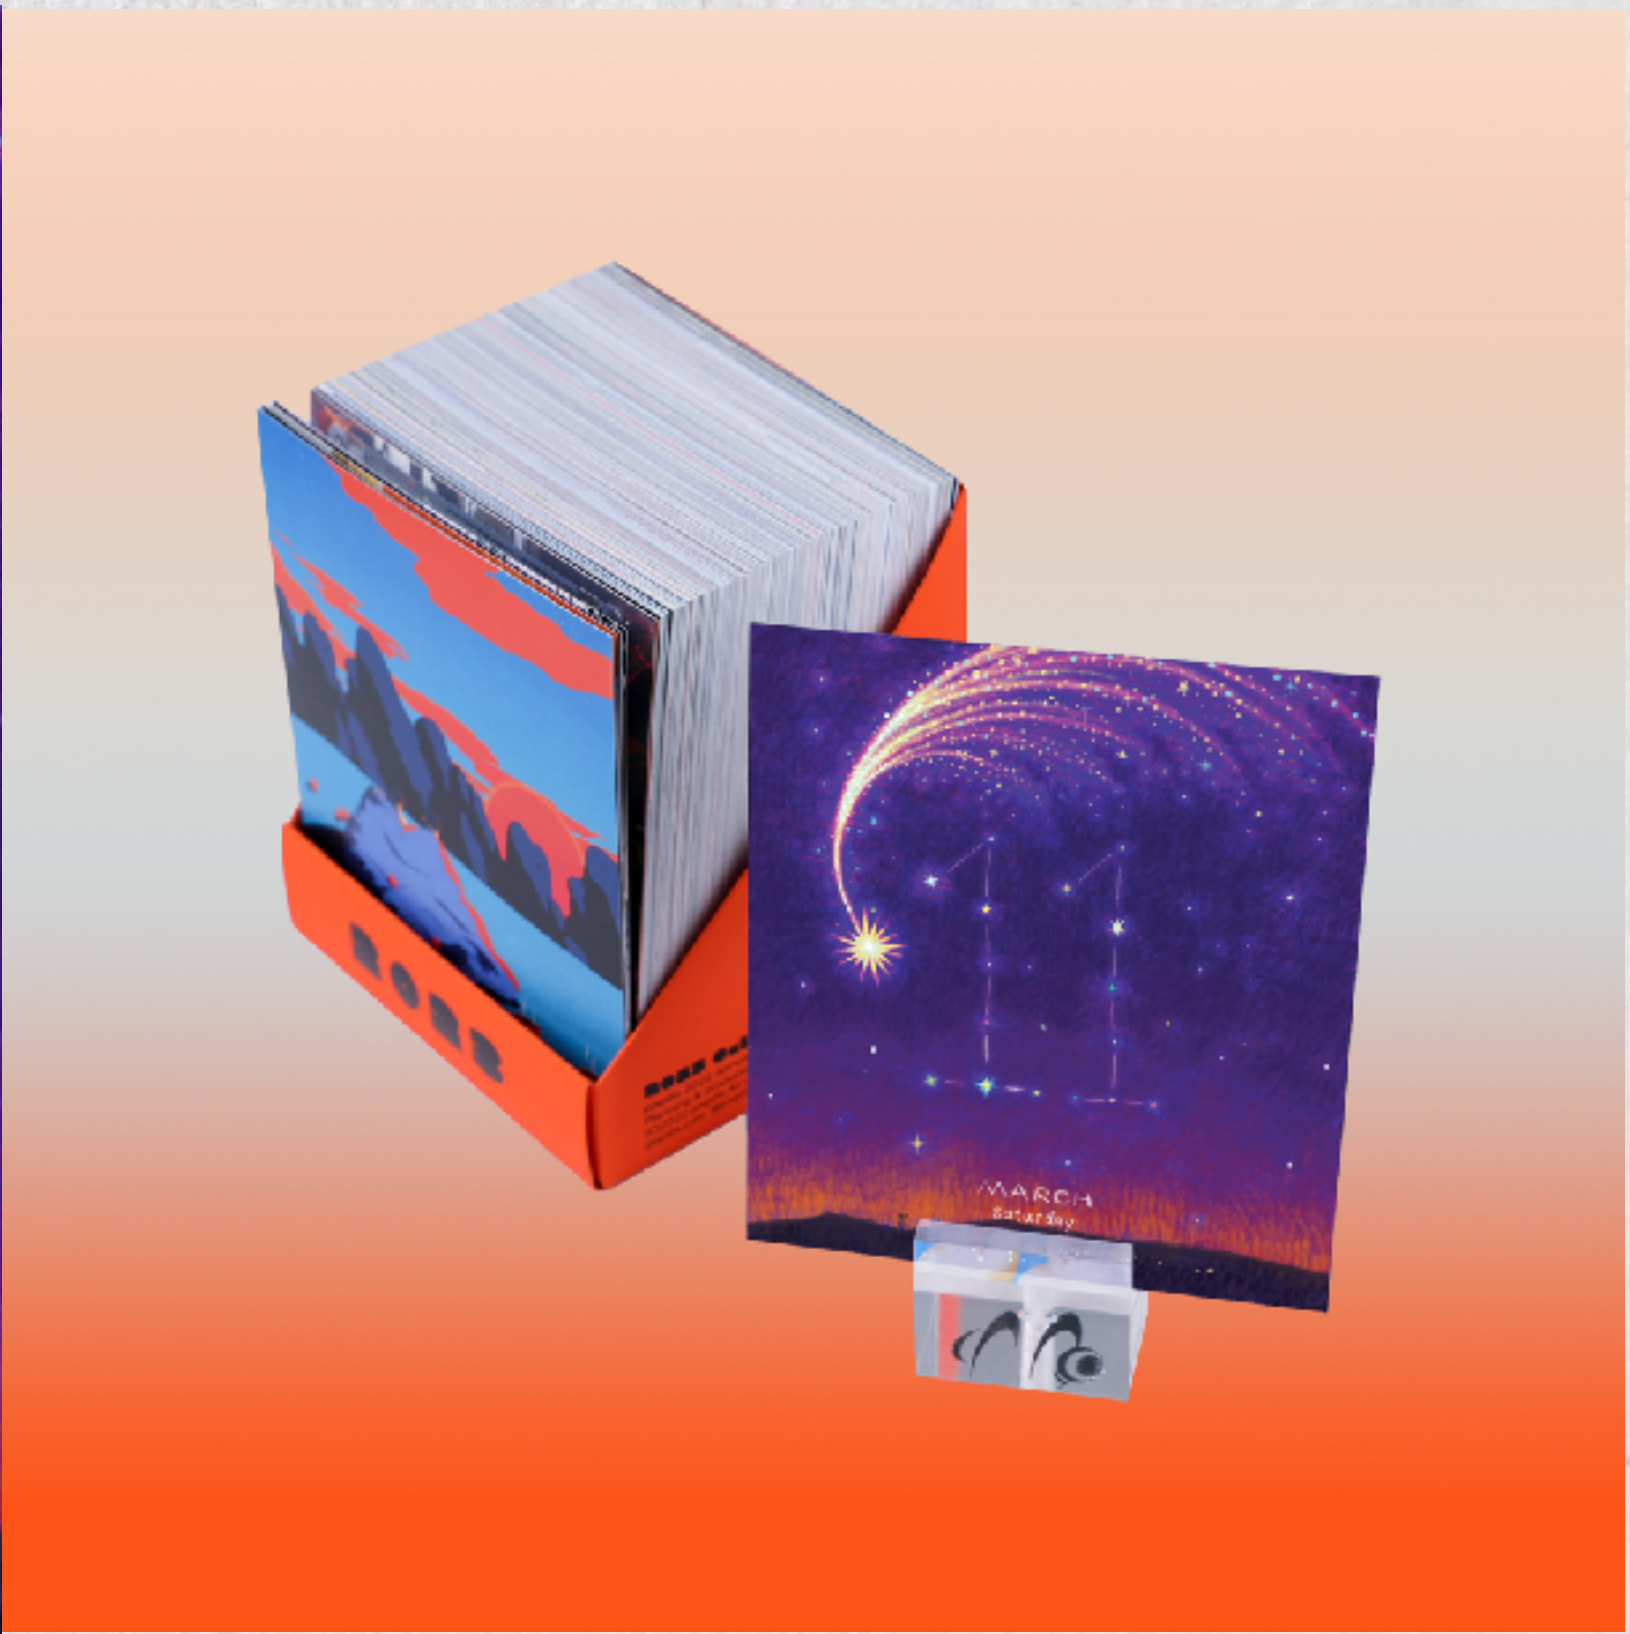

Illustration for the daily pad calendar

The overall looking of the product.

The company called 'Pixpills' is running annual creative project with various of illustrators and artists. The most representative project which they are doing is 'Annual Artbook'. The project is about making a daily pad calendar. The main concept of the project was 'artist's play list'.

To develop the illustration for the project, I picked one song (Coldplay's 'Yellow') which influenced to my creative practices and I made an illustration of comet. I allocated the date 11th of March and I visualised the date by drawing constellations.

The 'Annual Artbook' project expanded as an exhibition in Musinsa Terrace in Seongsudong.
I made frame-by-frame motion illustration for two screens which is allocated in Seoungsu station and inside of the exhibition place.

Illustration project 3. A pop-up exhibition in Hyundai department store (motion graphic)

This project was suggested by the art-platform company, Art lounge, in Korea. The Ceo of the company suggested to me to have pop-up exhibition with them in the Hyundai department store which is located in the middle of Seoul. They asked me to make motion illustration which can inspire people by calm and peaceful images.

Illustration project 5. Mission Impossible Motion Illustration

The motion illustration project was made for submitting contest which is handled by Cotton Seed (NFT block chain company), and Lotte cinema.

The contest was about making motion illustration for promotion of movie 'Mission Impossible' in 2022.

I made the sketches based on the trailer on the YouTube and I pointed out several points from the trailer.

The main and most important scene from the movie was happening at Piazza San Marco in beautiful Venice and Alps.

I picked out two places from the movie and produced the illustration based on the scenery.

The motion illustration was designed for the media façade in Lotte cinema in the world tower.

This project is not official project.

Illustration project 11. Grains Cookie Tin-case illustration

The illustration collaboration project with Grains Cookie. Grains Cookie is the most representative cookie company in Korea. The illustration collaboration was for producing the gift package of their cookie tin case.

The planned tin cases have two different concepts, the romantic love and the love from family.

Second illustration for the concept: love of family

Third illustration for the concept: love of couple
